

Reading and Knowledge Book 3

Answer Key*

*This answer key and the contents herein are not intended to be the be-all and end-all guide for this book. Instructors have the final say when dealing with their students. Therefore, it is imperative that instructors review all books and all other relevant material before teaching or grading student work. Instructors are urged to make sensible and knowledgeable decisions when evaluating students and their work. In addition, instructors should be able to deal with any and all questions and ambiguities through thorough preparation. It is our hope that all instructors become sufficiently familiar with all relevant content in order to best serve students studying this series.
